

Dear Archway Family and Friends,

Jane Hull, former governor of Arizona, said, "At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child's success is the positive involvement of parents." One of the best ways to be positively involved at ANP is through our Parent Service Organization (PSO). Our PSO is committed to shaping the culture of Great Hearts North Phoenix and fostering a sense of community for our families.

The PSO organizes social events, expresses appreciation for our hard-working teachers, and helps raise money for specific projects. This is accomplished by a team of dedicated volunteers who express their love for their children by supporting their child's school through the giving of their time, their energy, their creativity, their experience, and their gifts.

On April 2 at 7:00 p.m., the PSO will be holding a nominations meeting for next year's officers. We are looking for parents who desire to be involved in helping ANP reach its full potential in shaping the hearts and minds of scholars. In addition to leadership opportunities, there are a number of other committee and chair positions available. The proverb states, "many hands make light work." The work is significant, and we are looking for a few more hands. Will you join us?

Truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Curtis Fee". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "C" and a long horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

Curtis Fee

Headmaster